Together We Are Proud, Together We Are STOKE

18th November 2024

Dear Parents and carers,

This Friday 22nd November, Owls Class will be visiting the Knatchbull Arms to learn more about the D-day meeting which happened at the pub during the Second World War. The class will be walking down during their English session (10:45am-12:10am) and will be back at school in time for lunch. This visit will feed into some writing that the children will be completing in the following weeks.

To prepare the children for the visit, Mr. Al Stewart will be visiting the school during the afternoon of Thursday 21st November to talk to the class about the D-day meeting that took place and other links with the village and the Second World War.

Kind regards,

Alfred Drewry and Alexandra Bell-Auge
Owls Class Teacher
